CAJE Partnership – Special Offer

For just $360, your organization can join the growing list* of groups who value Jewish educators and are committed to the ongoing development of best practices for Jewish students of all ages and in all settings.

CAJE wants to recognize this commitment with a special thank you to our partner groups.

If you join or renew your partnership before Dec. 31, 2008, CAJE will provide one free conference attendee for CAJE 34 for every 3 paid attendees (4th attendee is free).

16 participants in this year's conference are attending as a thank you to their Partnership agencies. This is in addition to the discounted memberships for staff from a Partnership Organization.

To become a Partner Member or find out more information you can come by the CAJE Office on campus or check out the CAJE site at www.CAJE.org.

* for the list of partner organizations, see page 14 in the CAJE 33 Program book

Session Description: Teaching Hebrew to Young Children

Monday, 10:15 - 1:00 PM Part I
Tuesday, 10:15 - 1:00 PM, Part II
Hebrew College - Pre-Registration Required
Waterman 427A

Session Description: This presentation will explore the history and the significance of the Hebrew language and how to integrate Hebrew around the daily preschool schedule. A Hebrew celebration of one Jewish holiday as a model unit will be demonstrated. With an additional follow up in the fall, students will emerge with the tools to use Hebrew in their classrooms.

Are you here from an Orthodox day school? Canfei Nesharim ("the wings of eagles") provides Torah-based resources about environmental issues and their relationship to Jewish tradition. Please come by to introduce yourself. I will be at the EcoTrack table on Tuesday and Wednesday morning, or can be reached by cell at 703-868-5356. Thanks! -- Evonne Marzouk

Making Jewish Education Work: Complementary School Change Initiatives

Tuesday, 4:15 - 5:30 PM
Kalkin 110

Be the first from your communities to preview "lessons learned" about recent congregational/ supplementary school change initiatives - and explore how to apply these lessons in your own communities! Have your say about the kinds of tools and "users' guides" that would help you bring these lessons to your community.

Additional Presenter Bios:

Kathy Gohr been playing music for as long as she can remember. As an adult she started writing Jewish music and recently moved from her native Michigan to Eastern PA in pursuit of a career in synagogue music and has been growing in popularity ever since. Her first CD, "Seasons of Our Souls" was released two years ago and she is currently working on her second.

Sheldon Low is the newest face in Jewish music performing rock concerts, Shabbat Services, and leading artist-in-residency weekends in Jewish communities throughout the US. Sheldon has an undeniable appeal to youth and family audiences, not only as a musician, singer/songwriter, and entertainer, but most importantly, as a Jewish educator and role model.
