Session Description:

Teaching Hebrew to Young Children

Monday, 10:15 - 1:00 p.m. Part I

Tuesday, 10:15 - 1:00 p.m., Part II

Hebrew College - Pre-Registration Required

Waterman 427A

Session Description:

A Model for Teaching Hebrew to Young Children:

This presentation will explore the history and the significance of the Hebrew language and how to integrate Hebrew around the daily preschool schedule. A Hebrew celebration of one Jewish holiday as a model unit will be demonstrated.

With an additional follow up in the fall, students will emerge with the tools to use Hebrew in their classrooms.

TODAH RABAH!

Thanks to all who answered the call for registration volunteers and to the team who stuffed conference bags:

Debby Agron, Janie Grackin, Adah Herschfeld
and Judy Calahan

Free Professional Coaching Opportunity

Got a personal or professional goal? An exciting opportunity? An overwhelming challenge? Come see how coaching can help! Professional coaching is an action-focused, interactive process that can help individuals, teams and organizations clarify objectives, anticipate and overcome roadblocks, and get moving further, faster. Deborah Grayson Riegel, MSW, ACC of MyJewishCoach.com will be offering FREE coaching sessions at this year's CAJE conference. Space is limited!

LOOK FOR SIGN-UP INFO AT REGISTRATION ON SUNDAY!!!

Too much CAJE, too little time? Email Deborah at headcoach@myjewishcoach.com or visit her at www.myjewishcoach.com and let her know you are a CAJE participant – she'll give you a FREE INTRO TO COACHING call after the conference

She is the author of Adoption and the Jewish Family and Raising a Mensch (published by JPS) and the Challenge and Change series. A long-time educator in the Jewish community, she is retired from her job at the Auerbach Central Agency for Jewish Education in Philadelphia, but continues to write and provide training and workshops for private clients, such as the Philadelphia Jewish Archives.

CAJE

Partner Membership Program

Eighty-three synagogue schools, colleges and universities, day schools, community centers, central agencies, institutions, organizations, and companies joined CAJE through our Partner Program in 2008. We salute the commitment to Jewish education and CAJE that this special membership represents. These institutions (listed on page 14 of your program book) have benefited in the following ways:

- Support excellence in Jewish education now and in the future
- Provide discounted membership in CAJE for all of the Partner Member educators and administrators
- Early Bird Special (become a Partner Member for 2009 by December 31, 2008): Receive free tuition for a 4th attendee at the CAJE conference after sign-up of 3 full tuition attendees—there are 16 attendees from 14 of our 83 Partner Membership organizations this year who are benefiting from this opportunity

An institution can become a CAJE Partner for 2009 by completing the on-line form and submitting it along with the $360 fee. All members of the institution may then join CAJE for the discounted membership fee of $60/person. Regular membership dues for non-Partner members, is $100 per teacher and $125 per administrator.

What a deal—support excellence in Jewish education and save money for your educators!!

Drop by the Art Center Living and Learning B132 to nurture your creative soul!

Open art studio is available whenever there is no presenter in session.

Appointments to meet with Debi and Laurie in the studio can be arranged!

The rule is: "If you can see it, you can use it; if you use it, please clean it!"
